

Biography

Dr. Narciso Hilario Montás is the President and founder of Revelation 3:20 Missionary Ministry and Biblical Teachings, Inc., Revelation 3:20 Theological University, Inc., Revelation School of Florida, Inc., Pastoral Care Institute, Inc., Revelation Security Services School, and was also instrumental in the development of the Membership Therapy Center to provide family and individual counseling within the community. For 20 years, Dr. Montás has been providing integrated faith-based Theological Instruction and Clinical Pastoral Counseling to the community around Cutler Bay, FL and has extended the services of the aforementioned institutions to other ministries and agencies through the State of Florida, New York, New Jersey, Puerto Rico, Georgia, Texas, Ecuador, Oregon, and other localities. He has been engaged in the instructional site in New Jersey to promote the Pillar College Programa BLEND, which was originally implemented in the Florida Campus, serving the unique benefit of achievement of a bilingual entry degree for the Spanish speaking individual seeking a higher education. Likewise, Dr. Montas has ventured a great working relationship with the New York Theological Seminary (NYTS) where he has achieved his Doctor of Ministry degree in May of 2018. Dr. Montas has worked with the NYTS for almost 3 years serving as the liaison to give other ministries the opportunity to send their leaders to the Spanish Cohort of the Ministerial Leadership Program from which he has successfully graduated, so that they too can take full advantage of the academic, ministerial, and personal growth that NYTS can provide to the Spanish speaking individuals and diverse society in which Revelation group serves.

In addition to the Doctorate of Ministry Degree from NYTS in May 2018, he holds an excellent track record of education. From 2001 through 2005, Dr. Montás achieves the following degrees at Faith Theological Seminary and Christian College in Tampa, Florida: In 2001, the degree of Bachelor of Theology; In 2002, the degree of Master of Theology, Summa Cum Laude; In 2003, the degree of Master of Christian Counseling, Cum Laude; In 2004, Doctor of Theology, Magna Cum Laude, and in 2005, Doctor of Philosophy in Christian Counseling, Summa Cum Laude.

Dr. Montás' devotion is to ministry, the community, education, clinical and pastoral counseling, homeless services and youth services. He has been the recipient of leadership recognition awards for his leadership and dedication to diverse community affairs. Likewise, he has received a Nomination for the Certificate of Congressional Recognition for his dedication and outstanding invaluable service to our community as a successful Hispanic leader in South Florida. His work is acknowledged by government agencies that include the City of Homestead (FL), Miami-Dade County (FL), New Jersey, Ohio, Dominican Republic, and Latin America, including Brazil. He was honored as the President/Chaplain of the U.S. and South Florida Region of the Federal Police Chaplains, Inc.'s outreach educational program, and serves as an ordained licensed Chaplain of the Federal Police Chaplains organization whose main headquarters facility is in Arecibo, Puerto Rico. In January of 2016, Dr. Montas was honored with the New York State Senate (8th District) Proclamation at Revelation University's Class of 2015 Graduation and Banquet Event.

Dr. Narciso H. Montás believes that, “without education we are empty, that knowledge is the tool for logic and reasoning, and that we become obsolete if we do not emphasize on education, which is guided by the spirit of Love, giving to the social spectrum, rather than an individual competition to be at the service of mankind.
